

Should precede 1437

H. H. to Lord North

GEO/maint

Nov. 26 1772

1434

Lord North, I cannot have any objection to Sir Charles Cox's succeeding Mr. Carter as Clerk of the Ordnance, and think Mr. L'Anglois's conduct at Vienna gives him very good pretensions to be Clerk of the Deliveries. They may therefore shift hands either tomorrow or Monday which ever suits best your having their attendances in Parliament

Green House

Nov. 26. 1772.

$\frac{20}{82}$ A. H. C. H.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]

2/1/1897