Donne I 125

Lord North, The Remonstrance according to the Copy you have transmitted to Me this day has undoubtedly the marks of being the most violent, insolent, and licentious ever presented, but when it is known how thin the meeting was that countenanced the proceeding and their indifference to it, a dry answer rather bordering on contempt than anger may not be improper; I cannot help suspecting that Mr. Oliver has been advised to be still whilst he delays the bringing this flagrant piece of impertinence whilst the Lord Mayor consults what part he will take or at least to shew that the Irish party has not been the proposers of this absurd measure
