

H. H.
6
Pced
Hals

15671

about 1772

(1)

My Son

The affection I have for You and the ^{seeing those marks} ~~hopes of seeing~~ in You ^{which if due} ~~becomes~~ care is taken in Your Education must make You an Upright & Able Man; has given rise to my putting on paper the remarkable occurrences of my Reign, as they may tend to shew You how little dependance can be placed on any thing in this World; ~~that the best method of continually~~ ^{perceiving Your Duty is the} ~~will find that the~~ continually placing before Your Eyes that the Supreme Being has ^{put} ~~placed~~ You in an earthly Station, & that You are therefore accountable to Him
 for Your conduct

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]