

London March the 20th 1765.

15745

Out of the German Specification of Jewels there is to the exact value of forty thousand & nine hundred Pound Sterling, which can, no way be doubted to be mine, being all purchased by the late King, besides the Pearls, some of which are very valuable, as well as the late Queens third Diamond in the Stomacher, supposed to be Her Majesty's wedding Ring: as, also the purple Drop Diamond, as well as the other Diamonds upon which there is no Price fixed.

Memorandum relating to the value of the jewels. (March 20:)

1765.

N: 6.

