

Mr de Grand to the Duke of Gloucester

Supposed November 1765 ? Dec. 1

15805

Sr

When his Royal Highness the Duke of York proposed to me, that Mr Dross should come to fill up the vacant hours, with Prince Henry, occa-sion'd by Mr Charles' attendance upon Prince Frederick, I troubled your R. H. to acquaint the King of it, and the answer you brought me was, that his Majesty did not disapprove. This was what pass'd between me & Mr Charles, upon that occasion.

I am Sr Your R. H.

Handwritten text on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is extremely faint and illegible, appearing as light brown or tan ink. It seems to be a list or a series of entries, possibly names or dates, but the characters are too faded to discern. The paper shows signs of age, including creases and discoloration.
