Dear Sister

The Mail that arriv'd this Morning has brought me your letter of the 11th by which I learn you omitted for two days delivering my letters to the King of Denmark, considering the hurry & anxiety you must have suffer'd at that time, I cannot say I am surpris'd at it; You seem thank God to be in very good spirits, which repairs that every thing has turn'd out as you could have wish'd which I am certain does not give more sincere joy to any one, than to him who subscribes himself

Dear Sir

Your Obedt<sup>serv</sup> Son
