Dear North, I have just received your letter by which you seem to think you shall be able to procure the sum required, after I have seen you on Wednesday, I will direct Mr. Legrand to wait on you that the mode of repayment may also be settled; this takes a heavy load off of me; though I cannot enough express ~~how~~ ^{how} ~~much~~ ^{much} ~~grateful~~ ^{grateful} ~~you~~ ^{you} being in the least concerned in an affair that my way of thinking has ever taught me to be held as highly improper, but I flatter myself the truth is I have thought it incumbent to utter may be of some use in his future conduct.
