

Draft to the E. of Holderness
Queen's House March 13th 1771.

15907

Queen's House March 13th 1771.

15906

Lord Holderness, The very full declaration You have made in the letter I have just received, of yielding to my desire of confiding the education of my Sons into Your hands, gives me the greatest pleasure. I shall be very curious of learning tomorrow evening from You the result of Your conversations with so wise, able, and honest a man as the Archbishop of York.

George I.

1850

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting]

[Signature]