

Draft to the E. of Holderness
Queens House March 26th 1771.

Queens House March 26th 1771.

Lord Holderness, ~~and to the sub Governor no one that approaches~~
<sup>nothing is more</sup>
~~any less seems so essential~~ to be with care fixed upon <sup>than</sup> the French Teacher, I am therefore much pleased that one has already occurred to you; the little you could in the compass of a letter convey with regard to M<sup>rs</sup> de Salgas appears to promise le voila that I have already said I wished so ardently to meet with, and shall be desirous of hearing more on this subject from you personally tomorrow Evening at Seven.

Handwritten text in cursive script, likely a letter or document, mounted on a larger sheet of paper. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and the angle of the page. A faint stamp or mark is visible in the upper right corner of the document.
