

H. H. to Lord Holderness

15923

Queens House April 17th 1771.

Lord Holderness, The very pleasing expressions of the Bishop of London on an event of so much consequence to me gives me great satisfaction; ~~and as such~~ <sup>Therefore</sup> I thank you for the communication. I shall be ready to receive you here at twelve, which will prevent

J. B. C.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]