

E. of Holderness
London June 18th 1771.

15930

London June 18th 1771.

Sir

Mo^r de Salgas having met with obstruction upon the road could not get here till eleven o' clock this forenoon; he has not brought mourning with him nor is it possible for him to appear to day without Your Majesty's permission to do so in a travelling dress.

I have the honour to be with all Duty & submission

Sir

Your Majesty's
most respectfull dutifull & obedient Subject & Servant Holderness.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]