Dear Sister

On Wednesday I had the satisfaction of receiving Your letter of the 29th <sup>the regret I have produced by</sup> ~~which I find your happiness is what I shall~~ ~~with trust~~ <sup>move</sup> ~~your real comfort to you~~ <sup>which</sup> ~~is the great healer of~~ ~~wisdom to form~~ <sup>is</sup> ~~the great healer of~~ misfortunes ~~will~~ <sup>be</sup> ~~rest~~ <sup>by degrees</sup> ~~bring you to that~~ composure of mind that will <sup>enable</sup> ~~make~~ my endeavours ~~be~~ ~~successful~~ <sup>with success</sup>. The parting with Your Children must be a severe trial, but when you reflect that if you had not left Denmark that they would not have been suffered to comfort you in your confinement <sup>and</sup> will look on it as a consequence <sup>of</sup> ~~that~~ ~~has~~ ~~happened~~.
You will find My Electoral Attendants at Stade ready to attend you to the Goehorde, <sup>which is my</sup> ~~thought~~ ~~agreeable~~ ~~summar~~ Residence, and will free you from the embarrass of a <sup>which your residing in the present state of agitation</sup> town, My Sister will come from Brunswick to see you as soon as you intimate a wish of seeing her. I shall immediately settle with you at the winter Residence and as soon as every thing is fixed regarding the Money to be paid you from Denmark

I shall give you my opinion as to the Court you ought to keep and as to the persons you may be willing to have it composed of till then my Electoral Servants will wait upon you. Dear Sister look on Me as your most sincere friend and you will ever find that in any advice I may give you, no other view will guide me but what I think most for your service
