Dear Sister

I received yesterday Your Letter of the 21th I have at length received ~~and~~ from the Queen of Denmark though she imagined it would be opened at Copenhagen she wrote with great freedom on the late transactions; by the Hanoverian Messengers that returns on Friday I shall more fully enter into this unhappy business and put You more au fait than I can by so unfaithfull a conveyance as the Post.

I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.
I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
James Oglethorpe
