

His Majesty George
the Third to the Queen of Denmark

Oct. 6. 1772

15991

New Oct. 6. 1772.

Dear Sister

<sup>Your Court</sup>
The conduct to be held at Your Court at Zell ought undoubtedly to be similar to what has been the custom at Hannover therefore none but the noblest can be admitted on Court days, when You are in private there can be no objection to the letting any other Women whose husbands are in employments.

The sending such lumber from Denmark to You is much of a piece with the rest of the treatment they have shewn on this unhappy occasion, and must ~~take~~ <sup>to You</sup> ~~show~~ <sup>perpetrate</sup> You what a terrible situation
You would have been in if suffered to have remained in those hands.
