

H. M. to Leonard Smelt

Nov. 9 1772

Mr. Smelt, My opinion perfectly coincides with that contained in Lord Holderness's letter. we all know how ~~attached~~ ^{inputs} the Prince of Wales ~~has to~~ ^{values all} Objects of ~~importance~~ ^{representation} and therefore must keep them as much as possible from him until the excellent plan of Education ~~has been adopted~~ ^{has impressed his mind}
~~with them as much~~ ^{with them as much} ~~has taught him to look on them as attendants to the situation~~
~~in which~~ ^{in which} ~~it has pleased Providence to place him, and consequently~~ the Tribute to the Prince not the Man; as the Asylum though an excellent Charity is not a fresh Institution, and as the late Earl of Bute ~~held the Office of President~~ ^{has}
~~as the President has been~~ ^{declining the offer, is very natural} ~~for the offer but his intimation~~
~~and his intimation~~ ^{for the offer but his intimation} ~~pointing out the impossibility~~
~~of such a proposal~~ ^{of such a proposal} ~~that during the Minority of the Prince~~ ^{similar}
~~will put a stop to such applications~~ ^{will put a stop to such applications}
~~as he has heard that there are so much prevent any application~~ will put an end to this and probably to future ideas of this
