Lion Hill April 6th 1774

Sir

I want words to express how truly I am penetrated with Your Majesty's goodness and condescension, my life and Health are indeed worth preserving since You Sir are pleased to think them of consequence to the Service of your Royal Children; my life is devoted to them and were my powers equal to my zeal Your Majesty would have reason to applaud your choice of me to be about them;
It gives me the greatest satisfaction to

Think

Think Your Majesty has observed the merit of those I took the liberty to mention as fit persons to be joined with me in the arduous task of educating the Princes of England, Their Royal Highnesses aimable disposition and blessed temper ensure success to our endeavours, That Your Majesty and The Queen may be blessed in your Royal offspring as Your virtues deserve is the fervent and daily prayer of

Sir

Your Majesty's most dutifully devoted Servant and Loyal Subject
