

Brought to E of Holderness
Lucas Hoare April 15th 1774

16013

Lord Holderness, The message Mr. Smelt delivered to Me from you the last evening gave me much satisfaction as it acquainted me ^{with} that your consent to ^{adopt} what I have long thought the most certain method of reestablishing your health; persons attached to any particular system are apt to ~~be too much~~ ^{when they feel themselves intitled to recommend it with} ~~an~~ ~~entire~~ ~~confidence~~ ~~on what much interest them~~ yet I will venture to foretell that ^{the dry air of Switzerland} ~~pure air~~ moderate exercise, and an uninterrupted plain diet, will not only remove your complaints, but give you a degree of health. You have ~~perhaps~~ ~~never~~ ~~yet~~ ~~experienced~~; therefore I look upon myself to ~~be that~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~best~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~country~~ ~~you~~ ~~have~~ ~~chosen~~ ~~as your~~ ~~of~~ ~~Switzerland~~ ~~no~~ ~~delay~~ ~~with~~ ~~Switzerland~~ ~~is~~ ~~taken~~ ~~that~~ ~~you~~ ~~will~~ ~~without~~ ~~loss~~ ~~of~~ ~~time~~
~~about~~

Lucas Hoare
April 15th 1774.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a letter or document fragment.]