

Draft to Ld Bruce
St. James's May 23rd 1776
on 55 p. M.

16070

Lord Bruce, I have considered your delicate and proper question, whether you ought not to wait on Lord Holderness, and am clear <sup>of opinion</sup> that it will be right and natural, he alone can state the method of keeping the account as I may other particulars that no one else is acquainted with. I shall be desirous of seeing you at the Success House at twelve tomorrow

St. James's
May 23rd 1776
in
55 p. M.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a letter or document fragment.]