Queens House June 2. 1776.

16076

My Lord. I have persuaded the Duke of Montague to accept of the Office his brother has declined his worth is equal to that of the good man we both this day so much regretted. I hope this will also heal a mind I am certain much hurt at being the cause of much pain to me. I am now going to New to notify the change to my Sons, and desire You will be here at ten this night when I will introduce You ^{to} the Duke the similarity of the Brothers will I trust make the change not material even to You.
