My Lord Duke, Agreeable to the offer I made you yesterday
I submit a copy of the letter I sent through your channel yesterday to the Earl of Ailesbury, every expression of which contains the exact dictates of my heart.

I trust you have directed Lieut. Col. Gotham to attend at St. James's that he appear with his Principal.
I have sent directions to the Lord President that you may be sworn of the Privy Council.

As I was going to seal this up, I received your note for which mark of attention I sincerely thank you

St. James's House
June 5th 1776.
