

Distribution of Time for their Royal Highnesses, as settled by His Grace the Duke of Montagu for the Winter. 16110

Rise... Half an Hour past Seven o'Clock; to be in the Abstracting Room at light exactly, & to be an Hour with the Sub-Preceptor before Breakfast.

To Ten... Walk

To Eleven... Translate

To One... With the Bishop

To Two... Ride on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, & Saturdays
Fence on Mondays, Thursdays, & Fridays

To Three... Drefs.

To Four... Dine

To Five... Dance, Wednesdays, Thursdays, & Fridays
... Amuse themselves the other Days.

To Six... Read by themselves, & transcribe alternately, &
Write letters when necessary.

To Seven... German Master, Mondays, Wednesdays, & Fridays
French Master... Tuesdays, Thursdays, & Saturdays.

To Eight... Read by themselves, & give an Account of what they have read to the Sub-Preceptor.

On Sundays

An Hour before Breakfast with the Sub-Preceptor.

From One }
To Two... } With the Bishop

From Five }
To Seven... } In the evening with the Sub-Preceptor.

Distribution of Time for the Winter.

London, 20th Nov<sup>r</sup> 1776

06031

