Prince George Spithead

Sir

I wrote to your Majesty from Torbay, since which time, I have the Satisfaction to inform you that Prince William has been perfectly well and in every respect as I c<sup>d</sup> wish him, and upon the whole I think has made as much progress both in his studies and in his professional knowledge as can reasonably be expected, and I hope your Majesty will not find him to have acquir'd any of the roughness & want of good breeding he must have been accustomed often to meet w.:

I have not put him forward in his duty as an Officer; on the contrary I have kept him back, and think it will be an advantage to him to follow that Plan some time longer

Your Majesty's very Faithfull & Dutifull
Servant
