Hanover Feb 27th 1781

Sir

I received the honour of your Majesty's letter dated y<sup>e</sup> 6th ins<sup>t</sup> or y<sup>e</sup> 19th; & have the satisfaction to acquaint your Majesty that every thing goes on here perfectly well: His Royal Highness applies himself very closely to his study, & I have the pleasure to inform your Maj<sup>ty</sup> that M<sup>r</sup> du Plat & Cap<sup>t</sup> Hograve are beyond measure satisfied with the progress he has made, & still continues to make. The Landgrave of Hesse has sent one of his Gentlemen of the Court with a letter of compliments to the Prince upon his arrival.

To which His Royall Highness has returned an answer. As I have nothing of importance, which preser to communicate to Your Majesty.

I hope Your Maj<sup>y</sup> will excuse my not entering further into particulars as I have had for this fortnight past a very severe attack of the Rheumatism in my right Shoulder, which makes writing very painful to me. I am however in great hopes I shall soon get the better of it. The Prince continues perfectly well, & in good spirits

I have the honour to be Your Majesty's, most dutiful subject & servant, Rich<sup>d</sup> Grenville
