

R. Admiral Digby

June 3^d 1781

16253

Prince George

June 4th 1781

Sir

I wrote yesterday by the Foudroyant to acquaint Your Majesty that Prince William was quite well & had very much recover'd from y^e little ill Humours he set out with. But I am sorry to find His Royal Highness does not go on quite so well with his learning as he did last year. However he is now got so far in Mathematicks that he cannot well avoid making himself master of them, w^{ch} by practice he will naturally have. Both Mr. Majindie & Mr. Waddington continue to be very valuable persons in their Situations
Y^r Majesty's very Faithfull
& very dutifull Serv^t

Robt. Digby

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]