

E. of Aylesbury
London May 4. 1783.

16350

London May 4. 1783

Lord Aylesbury is overcome with the most gracious and affecting Letter with which He has been just Honour'd, and He truly sympathizes with Their Majesties in Their unhappy Situation. Lord Aylesbury will endeavor to follow such uncommon Examples of Fortitude and Obedience to the Will of Providence Whose Goodness continues to support Him under all his Afflictions. It will be a great Comfort to Him to hear that Their Majesties enjoy Their remaining Blessings tho' Nothing can make up for the Loss of the Dear One They have been so unexpectedly deprived of.

Recd of Pe Octavins
May 3

