

Shd. follow 16470

Ld. Chancellor
Sept. 7. 1784.

16469

16372

The Chancellor presents His humble Duty to your Majesty; and returns His Royal Highness's Letter: which He read with the satisfaction of learning, that, if His Royal Highness had ever really conceived the extravagant purpose of leaving this Country so abruptly, as was thought,
He has repented of it; and relieved your Majesty from the painful necessity of taking more publick and severe steps to prevent or redress so great an inconvenience.

Sept. 7. 1784.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]