Sir

I have this moment received the honour of Your Majesty's letter of the 28th of last month, & it gives me the greatest pleasure to find that my letters have afforded so much comfort & satisfaction to Your Majesty.

I have not words sufficiently strong to describe to Your Majesty the joy which His Royal Highness expressed on receiving the news of His appointment to the command of the Coldstream Regiment of Guards & His promotion to the rank of Lieutenant General.

I am confident these repeated marks of Your Majesty's goodness & affection towards Him, will never be obliterated from His Royal Highness's memory, & that He will ever retain a due sense of what He owes to the Best of Fathers;

I have the honour to be

Your Majesty's
most dutiful Subject,

& Servant
