Sir

In consequence of what The Duke of York was pleased to mention at Herburg on Tuesday last, when, in attendance upon Prince Edward, I had first the honor of paying my respects to His Royal Highness; I have thought it my duty to acquaint Your Majesty with my departure from Lunenburg yesterday afternoon, & with my arrival at Hanover this morning —

I most humbly beg leave to observe to Your Majesty, that Prince Edward continues to express himself extremely happy in His Establishment, and I should be very desirous in my attention to His Royal Highness, if I did not mention how deeply gratified He seems to be, at this particular instance of Your Majesty's great.

goodness, and most gracious disposition towards Him

His Royal Highness shews great inclination to pay all proper attention to L<sup>td</sup> Colonel Wagnersheim, who, very thoroughly sensible of the importance of his charge, is most anxious in his endeavors to merit the continuance of that confidence, with which Your Majesty is pleased to honor him,

I have the honor to be, with the utmost Respect, Sir,

Your Majesty's
Most Dutiful Subject
And Faithfull<sup>er</sup> Servant
