Sir.

London June 28th 1785

I have this moment received the honour of Your Majesty's letter of the 21st inst, & lose no time in returning Your Majesty my most humble thanks for the very gracious manner in which Your Majesty has been pleased to grant me the permission to return to England for a few months in the course of the ensuing Winter. Give me leave, Sir, to assure you that I feel most sensibly the flattering expressions contained in Your Majesty's letter, nothing can give me greater pleasure than to think that my endeavours to deserve Your Majesty's approbation, have been in the smallest degree successful,

I have the honour to be

Your Majestys,

most dutiful Subject & Servant

Hanover
