

H. Pitt

Apr. 13 1787

16563-4

In obedience to your Majesty's Commands, Mr Pitt has conversed with the Chancellor on the Subject of the Letter from the Prince of Wales to Lord Southampton which your Majesty condescended to put into his hands, and which he has the honor to return. The enclosed Draft of an Answer to Lord Southampton is humbly submitted to Your Majesty's Consideration. It was originally drawn on the Chancellor's Suggestion with only a general Reference to the former Correspondence, but on further Reflection, Mr Pitt conceives Your Majesty may think it not improper to recapitulate

Wm. Pitt

Apr. 13 1787

16564

shew the substance of what has passed, in order that these two letters, even if shewn detached from all that preceded may give as accurately as possible a just view of the whole Transaction.
In this particular only the Draft is altered from what was settled with the Chancellor.

Friday. April 13th 1787. - 40th part one P^m.
Peterham Lodge.

Mr. J. H. Lee, of the Petersham Lodge, April 13, 17 70 p.m. P.M.
around Windsor 2. p.m. P.M.
of full appearance