May 21 1787

16600 - 1

Mr Pitt has the Honor to acquaint Your Majesty, that He is just returned from Carlton House, and has received from His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales the Paper transmitted herewith, which His Royal Highness wrote after having perused your Majesty's Message, and expressed his full assent to the Terms in which it is conveyed: This Explanation Mr Pitt humbly hopes will be satisfactory on the Point in Question. -

Mr Pitt takes the Liberty of submitting a Message to the House of Lords, which varies only in form from that prepared for

The House of Commons, and I presume also to trouble your Majesty with another copy of the Message to the House of Commons in consequence of an Altera-tion which has been suggested in the last Paragraph, which I trust will meet with your Majesty's Approbation your Majesty will perceive on comparing it with the message signed by your Majesty this morning, that the difference is only in what relates to the Estimate for Carlton House, which on Reflexion Mr Pitt humbly submits it may be better to defer largely before the House till it has been farther examined. - The Address it is conceived may desire your Majesty in general Terms to advance such Sums as may be necessary promising that the House will make them good.
