Windsor Oct. 9. 1790.

My Dear Frederick, It is impossible for Me not to applaud
Your desire of going on Service though I must ever wish whether the ~~of~~ <sup>employment is such as will admit of my employing</sup>
~~now~~ <sup>now</sup> ~~ordered to be prepared~~ <sup>are not certainly adequate to either</sup> situation and therefore I must keep You should <sup>the opportunity</sup> for some opportunity where <sup>more considered</sup> ~~may be~~ ~~employed~~ <sup>the body employed may be more</sup> ~~considerable~~ <sup>and the object consequently more brilliant.</sup>
with great
I ever remain &c
