

Draft
to Mr Pitt N^o. 1.
Windsor May 30th 1795.
P. of Wales's Establishment

Windsor May 30th 1795.

on 15th M. & A. M.

I had not seen Mr Pitt's proposal for the Establishment of the Prince of Wales and He notified it to the Prince, I might have been at an earlier period of the business to prudent considerations, but my word being given it is impossible for me to attend to any other subject the not enabling the Prince of Wales to accuse me with reason of breach of promise, therefore I must a new propose Mr Pitt to use every possible means to get a good attendance on Monday when the business is to be discussed, and I again repeat I am certain as to regulations that shall not entirely destroy the splendour of the rank of an heir apparent of the Crown, I am certain My son will be bound by such ~~will be ready to consent to any~~ reasonable restriction as Mr Pitt may propose.
