

Opinions of the Five Physicians

May 23 1804

16736

We are of opinion that His Majesty is perfectly competent to the transaction of important business: at the same time we think it expedient, both as a means of confirming his recovery, and as a security against any danger of a relapse, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased still to permit the continuance of such medical guidance as may be thought necessary.

Queen's Palace
23 May 1804

L. Pepys
J. B. Reynolds.
J. W. Milman
W. Keble
J. P. Simmons

Opinions
of the Senior Physicians
Lancaster Palace May 23. 1801