

Lord Chancellor
Nov. 9. 1804.

16759

The Lord Chancellor offers his most humble Duty to your Majesty, and takes Leave to inform your Majesty that he has had the Honour to receive a Note from his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, signifying his Royal Highness's Intention to be in Town this Evening in consequence of your Majesty's gracious Intention which has been signified to him, and that the Earl of Moria will wait upon the Chancellor to morrow Morning. The Lord Chancellor with ~~the~~ little Time in informing your Majesty of the Result of the Conversation, which may pass with the Earl of Moria.

Friday Nov 9 10 A.M.

Blank rectangular area at the top of the page.

Handwritten text in cursive script, appearing to be a letter or document, written on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. Some faint words like "Dear" and "Yours" are visible.