My Dear Brother

On returning from the Dominions of Wales I have received your letter, it grieves me that you have been a week confined, but the severity of the Weather easily accounts for it, and gives me well founded hopes, that the present thaw will soon remove the remains of your Cold.

I certainly have not forgot your application three years ago in favour of your Son, and trust that both you and ~~him~~ are confident of my affection for both, and that when I judge it proper I shall realize your wishes. I ever remain

My Dear Brother
Your most affectionate Brother
