

Mr. Genl. Sir John Francis Cadogan (aft Caradoc & 1st Baron Howden)

17847 private

Received by April 29. 1841.

My dear Mr. Howden -

In the first place, pray do not take the trouble of answering this letter -

It is only to say - that a most particular friend of mine, Sir James Dallas, is upon the point of writing to you a letter to be paid before his Royal Highness - I should de-regret the very strong proofs of friendship I have received from Sir James, if I did not take

The Liberty to express. But I believe him to be one of the most valuable men in the world, with as good an understanding, as heart -

again - I wish as much the Lot, and believe he has not truly yours & devoted
