

3 April 1811

Mr Ryder

Dispatch to Lord Lieut

17859

Whitehall April 3^d 1811

Mr Ryder has the Honor of humbly submitting to Your Royal Highness the Draft of a Dispatch which he proposes to send to the Lord Lieutenant, and which he has endeavoured to draw up in strict conformity to the Sentiments which Your Royal Highness has done him the Honor of expressing to him upon the subject to which it relates.

Mr Ryder begs leave at the same time to enclose a letter which he received a few days ago from Lord Manners, and it appears to convey his lordship's opinion upon the same subject more fully than any other communication he has had from him.

Mr Ryder need hardly add that he holds himself in readiness to obey Your Royal Highness's Commands to attend You at Carlton House at any moment that Your Royal Highness may signify Your pleasure
