

John Wilson Croker to Col. MacMahon

17875_6

admiralty

April 5 1811

My dear Sir,

Allow me to request of you to be so good as to inform His Royal Highness The Prince Regent that I have just heard from Bayle of a letter received this morning, via Cork from Sparto, & dated the 12th which states that the French were said to be in motion, & that one part of their force was directing it self

Col MacMahon

John Wilson Croker to Col. McMahon

17876 self towards the Leu de Mar- alle. a subsequent part of this letter adds, that "it is now ascertained that the French were at Sombat, Redinhen & Lopinal.

This account, you will observe, accords with that which we have already had.
It is otherwise not of much importance, but Mr. Foster wished me to convey it to you that His Royal Highness might be acquainted, both, that we have had had this much of intelligence, & that, up to this hour, we have no more

Believe me to be

Very dear Sir

Yours very faithfully

Whorley

5. April 1811.
J. M. Fotherby.