1788

? March 1774

Lord North has the honour of informing his Majesty, that, upon reading the order of the day, Mr Rose Fuller moved for referring the consideration of the reports of the two Committees to a Committee of the whole House, which occasion'd a pretty long debate, but at last pass'd in the Negative. It was so late when the Question was put that

General Burgoyne thought it right to defer his motion till tomorrow.
