

S. Percival to H. R. H.

Apr. 11 1811

17914-5

Mr Percival presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness and has the satisfaction to inform your Royal Highness that the House of Commons voted 10000 on account of the Dartmoor, according to your Royal Highness's desire, with the greatest appearance of liberality & unanimity.
The sentiment that this act of generosity and policy was congenial to the benevolence of your Royal

S. Percival to H. R. H.

Apr. 11 1811

Address of the King whom your Royal Highness represents, and of the People whom your Governor, ~~has~~ received in a manner which shewed, that it prevailed the whole House - No one followed Mr Percival who proposed the vote but Mr Denison - He said that he entirely & cordially concurred in the proposal; that he thought the Grant due to the Generosity of Great Britain Royal Highness, & due to the Ingratements of the Country - and that it was not more for the honor, than for the interest of the Country - He 17915

only regretted that the existing burthens and Expences of the Nation rendered it necessary to confine the grant to the sum proposed

Done at - Thursday Morning
April 11. 1811

April 11. 1811.

Mr. J. Amble

J. Percival

Sum of £10000

in Acc<sup>t</sup> of Mr

Porter