Sir, Having hitherto been prevented from paying my personal respects to Your Royal Highness, by the melancholy state of Health, occasioned by the Venereal, which I received in Holland, I humbly trust You will pardon my laying before Your Royal Highness a Memorial, stating the exact Situation I am placed in upon those Venereal, the particulars of which I fear are unknown to You & for the Truth of which I beg leave to refer Your Royal Highness to Sir Henry Hallford who has been in the constant habit of attending me in the kindest manner for many years —

Sir
I have the Honour to remain with the utmost respect
Your Royal Highness
Most Obedient & devoted Servant
Francis Cunningham,
