

15th Apr 1711
Lord Liverpool

on Recruiting

17923

Downing Street
April 15 1811

Lord Liverpool presents his humble Duty to your Royal Highness, and has the Honour to transmit a letter which he has received from the Commander in Chief upon the subject of the Bill for raising Men for the Regular Army, by Volunteers from the Militia.

Lord Liverpool humbly submits to your Royal Highness the expediency of consulting in the Opinion of the Commander in Chief and admitting the Operation of the Bill at least in the first Instance to the Reservoir of the Militia
