

25 July 1811
Marg. Wellesley

18270

Apsley House
25th July 1811
7 P.M.

Lord Wellesley has the honor to acquaint Your Royal Highness, that having been detained at a Cabinet Council this evening, he was not able to see Count Münster.

Mr Smith however saw him, & brings the following report.

There is a Prince Lubomirsky of a great Polish family, who is married to Gasteromirsky's sister. Gasteromirsky is

is not now in office in Russia, but he sees the Emperor, and is well disposed to England.

Lord Liverpool does not recollect
Prince Dubomirsky.

Care has been taken that his arrival in London shall not be delayed by the Alien Office.