My Dear Donoughmore

Yours of 26th past, has just reached me, too late to avail, for my support of Lord Leitrim —

I did propose to assist my Nephew, Lord Farnham, but his declining liberated me from that tie — and previous to any communication to me of the Prince Regent's wish — I did promise Lord Gosford — had I known from you in time, that the Royal Highness wishes, and had I in this instance been apprized of them in sufficient time, should have obeyed them

Always -

Dear Donoughmore,
Yours: Affectionately
& Truly
