Thamesgate
Nov 26th 1811

By order of His Royal Highness I enclose you my dear General the accounts of the several tradesmen employed for the Fete together with that for the dinner, in addition to which we think twenty pounds will not be too much to be divided amongst the numerous volunteers necessarily employed upon so short a notice.

I am, ever truly and warmly as ever as I was able and most by your approbation Yours

Col. Cooper to Col. McKahan

How my good friend must as these arrows with not perhaps smile at my going or leave of absence unless the above are previously settled and knowing you would gladly make all arrange if you could, I am persuaded you will enable me to do the needful before the 24th Inst. when I shall start for Col. Gustafson's house & hoping soon to shake you by the hand & report. I am make my best remembrance acceptable to you & all. Love from and

Believe me very sincerely yours
