Office of Ordnance
8th November 1811

Sir,

The Board of Ordnance having communicated to Mr. Coleman, who superintends the Veterinary Establishment in this department, Mr. Price's Statement (referred to the Board by you on the 30th September last) and the prospectus from Captain Blagrove, on the subject of Shoeing Horses, - and directed him to state what method of shoeing the Horses, belonging to the Horse Artillery and the Artillery Drivers, is now practised & whether the method corresponds with the practice originally instituted by him, Mr. Coleman - or whether any, and what, deviation has been made therefrom; and to report his opinion upon the system of shoeing Horses as practised under Captain Blagrove's direction;

I have the honor, by The Board's commands, to transmit to you a copy of a letter, dated this day, from Mr. Coleman, containing his reply to the foregoing points,

Major General Turner

G. D.

in order that it may be submitted to the Prince Regent, and I am to request
You will acquaint His Royal Highness that the Lieutenant General and Board entirely concur in the opinion Mr.
Solomon has given -

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient,
humble servant,

P. M. G. W.
