

Sir John Fleming Leicester (aft. 1st Baron de Tabley) to H. Geo. Turner.

18836 - 7

Tabley House
November 14th 1841

Sir

I beg to trouble you with my earliest thanks for the favour of your communication and to request you will have the goodness to lay before His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, my most respectful duty & humble acknowledgments for His Royal Highness's most gracious goodness on this occasion -

May I beg also add, how much you would oblige me, if you

St John Fleming her cester (aft. 1st Baron de Tabley to M. Gen. Turner)

18837

Should have an opportunity without hesitating upon His Royal Highness's Time to take His Royal Highness's Commands relative to the Color in which he may choose the German to be habit'd -

As having it in immediate Intention to re-clothe the Vol<sup>te</sup> Legion I have the Honor to command in this County, and which His Royal Highness on their being first raised was pleased to honor by allowing them to be call'd The Earl of Chester - It would be my decided Study strictly to adhere to His Royal Highness's Directions

The Cavalry consist of Six Troops quite complete and regular at Muster, the General Uniform Scarlet -

With every Apology for this Liberty which I trust you will excuse. -

I have the Honor to remain

Sir
Your most obed<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

J. M. Fleming Lieutenant
