

Ld. Moira to Col. Mc Mahon

My Dear Friend

I write instantly to the bishop of Limerick; & if no pledge be already given to another, there is no doubt of carrying the point. This appears to me better than writing directly to the Prime Minister.
For, as I know him but little, I fear he might make a sudden excuse & then think himself bound to abide by it. Now,

Barbican has tact enough to comprehend the thing, tho' by some alone shall ap-pear to him; & he will say it ef-ficiently with the other.

Respectfully yours
