The enclosed (the written at St. Paul) was only just now brought to me by a servant of Mr. Conant, & I have not an instant in sending it to J. R.
H. because it is so perfectly satisfactory. I have returned an answer to Conant by his servant, entreating him not to come so very far out of his

Went to Night, as from the New Road in his own Neighbourhood, after leaving Mr. Earmann at home, as I should not fail to be with him at Pillaint Place Tomorrow Morning by 10 o'Clock.

Yours Sir

J. R. H. J.

Affectionate Servant

J. Hillier

The Prince.
